Medical Vehicle Drive Now 15%

The Kiwanis Medical Fund Drive is off and running. With only one month elapse since its conception between the Kiwanis Club and the City of Sierra Madre, to hold a fund drive to raise between $18,000 to $20,000 to purchase a new Medical Vehicle to serve the Fire Department's Emergency Medical Technicians. A big boost was given this week with a one thousand dollar donation from R/C Modeler, helping the fund to reach 15 per cent of the requirement.

On May 10, Sam Tesoro, chairman of the drive and Benson Hegel, president of the local Kiwanis Club, called a special meeting between themselves and the civic, fraternal clubs and churches of the community to ask for their support in the drive. Some 12 clubs responded and with great enthusiasm, some very decisive planned event will be forthcoming to give assistance to the Kiwanians.

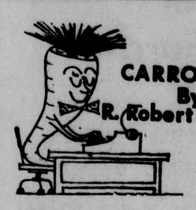
The Kiwanis Club is attempting to raise the money exclusively by donation, even to the point of donations of paper, envelopes, staples, banks, and time, all of which mean money and keeps the collected contribution intact.

Brochures have been printed together with a stapled self-addressed return envelope. Citizens of the community can expect these brochures and envelopes to arrive to them through many various sources, and are asked not to feel discouraged if they receive two or more, or even if they have already sent in their donation and still receive brochures and envelopes. How about passing one along to a neighbor who may not have gotten one? Your already-sent-in contribution has been recorded, but because of the wide spectrum of distribution there is no way to prevent duplicate distribution.

Each person, or family, or business that sends in a donation to the fund will be listed under the proper amounts and will be recorded in the books of contributors.

Listing the purpose of the drive here is not necessary, as any of you may pick up a brochure and envelope on your merchants' counters, or while attending the Kiwanis Breakfast, June 12, and at other public functions. Several thousands of them were distributed during the Friends of the Library Art Fair, and will be made available to other clubs and meetings.

Look over the list below and join with your friends in this worthy cause that will put Sierra Madre's Medical Emergencies at peace for the next nine years.



The June Primary is coming closer and closer. Politicians are making more and more promises, and this has been the scheme for years back, for the following article we clipped from the Sierra Madre News which was run just before the Primaries of 1936 . . . just 40 years ago . . . and it is true today, the same as it was true one hundred years ago and will be true come one hundred years from now . . . The article:

Did you ever think what gullible suckers we voters are?

— CT —

We know the stork doesn't bring babies. We know the magician doesn't really pick money out of the air. We know water doesn't run up hill. But we never seem to learn that political magic is no different from stage magic, except the price of admission is more.

— CT —

A good politician can make us think he picks money out of the air just like a good magician. But while the politician holds our attention by promising to give us something for nothing but our vote, his hand is in our pocket taking out our money (taxes) to pay for his "gift."

— CT —

Unless we learn to say "no" to the tempting "gifts" offered us, the political magicians will promise us a free trip to the moon with a golden chariot to ride in when we get there — but by the time we arrive, we would have long white whiskers and the pawn broker would have the chariot (and probably our return trip ticket) for the tax lien the political magicians gave him against us.

— CT —

And so life goes on and on and taxes go up, up and up . . . we are guillible suckers you know, same as our forefathers and our children.

— CT —

Some of this political stuff reminds me of a story that I am sure I can stretch into the poltical arena and it happened in a Midwest zoo who boasted a lion that was known far and wide for his fierce roars and majestic mien, but old age began to cramp his style, and the directors brought in a very young lion as insurance.

— CT —

The young lion was placed in a cage adjoining the old lion's. At precisely five o'clock sharp a keeper appeared and tossed twenty pounds of fine, red beefsteak into the old lion's cage. All the new lion got, however, was a bunch of grapes and a banana.

— CT —

The young lion was outraged. "I don't mean to hurt your feelings," he told the old lion. "But maybe you are responsible for my getting a raw deal instead of raw meat. How can an up-and-coming, self-respecting lion be expected to do his stuff on a diet of grapes and bananas.

— CT —

"You are the victim of a crisis in the city's finances," sighed the old lion. "The budget for this zoo allows for only one beaten-up lion and that is I. They've had to inventory you as monkey." . . . Politicians have a way of doing things after they are elected. Most are known to have made monkeys out of a lot of innocent people.

— CT —

Hey, here is a good one, and it really happened in a swank restaurant in Los Angeles, or most probably in Beverly Hills . . . seems that in the dining room of this swank hotel a clumsy waiter tripped and spilled a whole plate of soup on the white jacket of an outraged guest.

— CT —

The manager rushed up imediately and purred . . . "Give that coat to me, Sir.

Alverno High School Tennis Team Players Bring Home the First Place League Trophy

At a general assembly held at Alverno High School on Monday, April 19, the Tennis Team representing the school was presented with their First Place League Trophy.

Presented at the same assembly were trophies which were won by the team at a recent tournament in Flintridge, where the doubles team of Mary Ruggles and Patty King were given the first place award and the doubles team if Linda Clintron and Vicki Avjian received second place.

The City of Sierra Madre, as well as the school personnel are very proud of these girls for their achievement in the spirit of competition and good sportsmanship.

SIDEWALK SALE FOR MAY 21 - 22

This weekend, May 21 and 22 is the dates for the Merchants of Sierra Madre to hold their Sidewalk Sale that has been given approval by the City Council.

This is a Chamber of Commerce sponsored event with a bake sale scheduled, with hundreds of goodies at the Chamber of Commerce Office at 38 West Sierra Madre Boulevard.

Many merchants will feature close-out items of low cost and high values, so all consumers are cautioned to come early and stay late for this event.

Girls Softball Season To Open

The opening day for the Girls' Softball season will take place on Sunday, May 23, at 4 p.m., at Sierra Vista Park (Heasley Field).

This exciting day for the girls will start with the picture taking, starting at 1 p.m. I is suggested that each team arrive one half hour ahead of their scheduled time, so that no delays will be presented.

It is also suggested that, while the team pictures are being taken, each family takes a picnic lunch, or enjoy the food from the Diamond Diner, get acquainted with all the other softball families, and then be ready for that expected moment.

At 4 p.m. Mr. Dick Turrietta, master of ceremonies, will proceed with the program. Immediately after opening ceremonies have taken place, two games will be played as follows:

Junior with the home team listed as Roadrunners and Pink Panthers as visitors.

In the senior division, Gum Poppers as a home team and Blue Jeans as visitors.

THE LATEST ON OUR SIERRA MADRE BLVD.

The latest facts to reach us on the reconstruction, recurbing, regrading and the installation of a storm drain, together with new water lines, new gas lines and such is that Bids for the work have been called, and can be found in the next issue of the Sierra Madre News, setting down the workings of the project.

The Call for Bids will be for a period of time of approximately four weeks with the bid opening to be at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday, June 15, at which time they will be given to the Los Angeles County Engineers for analysis and, with all endeavor to shorten the time, will give the Engineers one week to review the bids with the contract to be awarded on Tuesday, June 23.

The Board of Supervisors have told us that they will shorten the time for the start of the contractor to 15 - 20 days instead of the customary 30 days and hope that the actual construction will start the week of July 12.

Using the figure of estimated 50 working days to completion with Labor Day out, should see the project coming to a completion between September 20 and no later than September 30. This is all we have at the present, but will keep you informed.

California's Earthquake Faults Shown On New Map Available From State

Earthquake faults in California come in many lengths, three ages, and abound by the thousands.

And they're all on a map — newly issued by the California Division of Mines and Geology — that locates more than 2,000 faults in the state and shows why a California resident finds it almost impossible to live somewhere away from an earthquake zone.

Some examples from the map, the first of its kind in a decade:

Residents of Caliente, a small town in Southern California, live near the White Wolf Fault which has been active within the past 200 years, one of the three age groups and one termed "historic" by state geologists. In fact, this fault "moved" in 1952 registering 7.7 on the Richter scale and causing extensive damage in the Bakersfield area.

Residents of Paso Robles, in contrast, live above the Rinconada Fault — listed as being active within the last two million years, the second age classification.

Residents of Redding live near two faults — Hoadley and Spring Creek — both classified as having moved sometime since the earth was formed.

The longest fault in California? The famous San Andreas, of course. With offshoots called Hayward, Palo Colorado-San Gregorio, and San Jacinto, to name a few, it extends from Humboldt County to the Salton Sea and beyond.

The significance of fault length is that a geologic rule-of-thumb says the longer the fault the stronger the possible earthquake.

The shortest on the map? Hundreds and hundreds, each about a mile long, clustered along the state's eastern boundary, in the Napa-Sonoma wine country, in the deserts of San Bernardino County, along the central coast from Monterey south, near Santa Monica, and along the Sierra foothills in California's Mother Lode.

Copies of the map, which measures about five - feet square, may be obtained at division offices in Sacramento, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. The map is available either rolled, suitable for mounting as a wallmap, or folded.

Over-the-counter price is $5. Mailed prices are $6.50 rolled in a tube or $5 folded. Sales tax is extra.

Hosp. Auxiliary Meets May 27th

The Auxiliary of the Sierra Madre Community Hospital will hold its general meeting on Thursday, May 27, at 11:30 a.m. Following the luncheon and business meeting, the group will be entertained by the Chanteurs, a well known vocal group from Arcadia High School.

Anyone interested in the Auxiliary is invited to attend. The cost of the luncheon is $3.75 and reservations should be made with Jane Buchan, 355-9163, not later than Monday, May 24.

This active group of women has recntly completed its commitment to the Hospital for the purchase of a Flamephotometer now in use in the lab. They also have just made a generous contribution to the Kiwanis Medical Vehicle Fund. Their next fund raising event is now being planned for a salad bar luncheon and fashion show to be held in July.

Coyotes On the Loose In Our City

All Sierra Madreans are warned, they should think kindly of their small animals, they should not let them out during the early mornings or after dark.

Coyotes are roaming the City on the loose, even to the point that they have been sighted casually walking down the street on Sierra Madre Boulevard in the business district.

Sierra Madre is a Wildlife Sanctuary, the killing of Coyotes is illegal, and according to experts this year they will be roaming the communities much more than they have in past years due to the brush fires experienced during the past year and the lack of water and food caused by those fires.

A SINCERE THANK YOU

Chief of the Fire Department, Charles Brown, together with the Chief of Police Irvin Betts, wishes to extend a hearty and generous thanks to all that attended the Dedication Ceremonies of the opening of the Sierra Madre Safety Facility on May 8.

All Officers and Dispatchers and Reserve Officers of the Sierra Madre Police Department, together with all Firefighters, join their respective Chiefs in an overwhelming "Thank You" not only for your attendance at the opening ceremonies but for the excellent and outstanding working conditions that the City of Sierra Madre and its Citizens have provided them.

It was indeed a great joy to all concerned to have had the opportunity of guiding over 1350 concerned citizens through the facilities, and the Police and Fire Personnel was very happy to share with those viewing the facilities the knowledge of the operation of the various departments.

It was indeed a happy occasion, with the wives of the Fire and Police preparing the refreshments, which were so graciously donated by various merchants. A thank you is also extended to the various civic clubs who sent representatives to help with the refreshments. The Grand Opening. It was a memorable day for all concerned.

ART FAIR A SUCCESS

The Fourteenth Annual Art Fair, staged by the Sierra Madre Friends of the Library has been termed as the most sucessful of all the fairs of past years.

Approximately 225 artists, having reserved exhibit space at Sierra Madre Memorial Park, started their work of setting up their displays and booths late in the afternoon of Friday, May 14, some of them working throughout the night to be in full readiness for the crowds that have always been experienced and expected.

Two beautiful days were experienced, with slight fog and coolness in the forepart of the day, with bright sunshine throughout the two days.

Under the watchful eye of Patricia Hofer, chairman of this year's fair, everything was in readiness by 9 a.m. on opening day of Saturday, and as the day progressed, the gathering spectators and buyers increased in leaps and bounds. Sunday was the gigantic and most successful day, as the artists opened their booths shortly after 12 noon, the crowd gathered and maintained itself until sunset.

All artists exhibiting thank those that attended the fair and looked over and purchased their wares. Patricia Hofer, together with the president of the Friends of the Friends of the Library, Barbara Brady and all of the members thank each and every one attending this Fourteenth Annual Affair. Your support was very gratefully appreciated.

Sierra Madrean On Dean's List

More than 1,500 undergraduate students at California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, have been named to the Dean's List for scholastic achievement during the 1976 Winter Quarter, which ended recently.

The 1,568 men and women chosen for the honor list were among 14,760 students enrolled during the Winter Quarter in Cal Poly's seven major academic units.

They were honored for attaining grades placing them in the top 15 per cent of the students in their respecive schools. All students named to the university's Deans' List must have been enrolled in a study program of 12 or more units during the quarter. One Sierra Madrean was on the list, he being Robert P. Treder, 260 Rancho Road, a mathematic graduate student.

Building Permits Continue Soaring

Building permits for the year 1975 to the tune of over $454,000 when the month of April reported $232,000 in residential and non-residential permits compared to zero for the year 1975, to gain this amount, alterations and other buildings were also tabulated and deductions were taken for demolitions. Actually new residential and non-residential alone show a total of $454,298 for the year of 1976 while the total for this same period of 1975 was only $86,900.

In the permit fee area, 1976 is also running ahead of the year 1975, with a total of 27 building and plan checks; excavation 7 permits; electrical 11 permits and plumbing 25 permits for the month of April. Business licenses for the month were 43 bringing the total for the year to $18,651.91 as compared to 1975 total of $27,416.67.

Music - Comedy - Drama At Bethany

Chuck Bolte will be appearing with the "Jeremiah People" in a presentation of music, comedy and drama on May 23, at 6:30 p.m., at the Bethany Church of Sierra Madre, located at 93 N. Baldwin. Currently in his fourth season as leader of the group, Bolte brings to "Jeremiah People" his comic versatility in a variety of character roles.

Church, a native of Colorado Springs, graduated from the University of Northern Colorado in 1972. Over the past five years, he and the group have recorded three albums on the Light label. Their latest release entitled "First Love," was produced by Bolte. It has received positive reviews in a number of national publications.

The 90-minute program of the "People" combines comedy sketches, original music, pantomimes, and monologues. Set in a fast paced format that's purpose is not only to entertain, but also communicate — they confront Christians everywhere with the Biblical truths of commitment and discipleship.

"Jeremiah People" are currently on a nine-month tour of performances across the United States. Traveling from 100 to 300 miles daily, they perform at military bases, churches, auditoriums, outdoor pavilions, high schools, and colleges from coast to coast.

Summer Calendar of Coming Events For Descanso Gardens Announced

Descanso Gardens Guild announces a full and varied series of weekend events for the pleasure of the public during the coming summer. All of the programs are free and will be performed on the main concourse of the lawn.

As part of La Canada Fiesta Days Celebrations over the Memorial Day weekend, the summer series opens Saturday, May 29 at 3 p.m. with the "Swangers Square Dancers," Mr. Art Hange, caller. On the following day, Sunday, May 30, also at 3 p.m., the program will be "Folk Dancing from Around the World," featuring dances of Mexico, Hawaii, and Japan.

On Sunday, June 6, the annual Arts and Crafts Show will be held from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. This is an invitational show and brings approximately 80 talented person from all over Southern California to Descanso Gardens for the one day event.

Programs in the subsequent weeks, all of which will begin at 3 p.m. are as follows:

June 13 — "Here Comes the Showboat" — Glendale College Music Theater and Glendale Civic Light Opera with Milton Young, Director.

June 26 and 27 — "Shakespeare on the Greene" — La Canada Players, Mr. Robert Hackman, director.

July 3 and 4 — "Symphony of the Verdugos" — Wesley Cease, director.

July 10 and 11 — "An Afternoon with the Children's Players" — Robert Hackman, director.

All of the programs have been arranged for by Mrs. Kenneth M. Heplar, Performing Arts chairman of Descanso Guild, with the help of Mr. Don Helenga and Mrs. Edwina Williamson of the Fiesta Days Committee for the May 30th weekend.

Descanso Gardens is located at 1418 Descanso Drive, La Canada and is operated under the Department of Arboreta and Botanic Gardens of the County of Los Angeles.

Tax Claim Forms Now In the Mail

More than 415,000 Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance claim forms have been mailed to California homeowners, according to Donald Whitney, director of the program for the Franchise Tax Board.

Claims may be filed between May 16 and August 31 for partial reimursement of property taxes paid.

To be eligible, Whitney said, the claimant must be 62 or older as of January 1, 1976, own and occupy his home and have total household income under $10,000.

Reimbursement can range from four per cent to 96 per cent of the property tax, depending upon the amount of household income.

Senior citizens who have not received their form and instructions or would like additional information concerning the program are urged to contact their local Franchise Tax Board district office or write to Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, P.O. Box 1588, Sacramento, California 95807.

Rev. Armin Hesse Relates Sermon

"The Promise To True Lovers" will be Pastor Armin Hesse's message in the 10:30 Sunday Worship Hour at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hasting Ranch Drive. Under Director Edgar Plishke, the Senior Choir will present Jane Marshall's "Awake, My Heart."

Sunday school, youth and adult classes, and the Pastor's Adult Church - Membership Study Class will meet at 9.

The semi-annual meeting of the General Assembly of the congregation will be held Sunday night at 7 in the sanctuary. The Assembly is comprised of all communicant members of the parish, with those of age 18 and over having the right of speech and vote. The six departments will give their reports, assessing attainments to date with 1976 goals. Delegate Arthur Porth will present a report on the recent District convention in Anaheim.

The Assembly meeting will be preceded by volleyball and other sporting activities at 3:30, and the congregational potluck supper at 5:30.

Next week's activities will be: Women's Christian Service Guild at the Helen Kenyon home on Monday night at 7:45; LWML sewing at the Gertrude Gerke home on Wednesday morning at 10; Bethel classes on Wednesday evening at 7:30; and Senior Choir on Thursday night at 8:30.

The Festival of Christ's Ascension will be observed next Thursday night, 7:30, with the celebration of Holy Communion.

Tomorrow evening, May 21, there will be an Adult Fellowship event in the parish hall, beginning at 8:30. According to committee members Judy Jones and Nina Bartolai it will be a "Make Your Own Pizza" party, with professional assistance available if needed.

The San Gabriel Valley Orchid Hobbyisst will hold their next meeting, May 20 at Stewart's Orchids, 1212 E. Las Tunas, San Gabriel, at 8 p.m.

TAX FAX

by Pat Daggerty — 13 Kersting Court

What you can expect in an IRS Tax Audit.

How would you like to take an examination in which you had a good idea in advance what the questions would be and you had most, if not all, of the answers? And it all was above board?

Strange as it may sound, that's pretty much how the IRS conducts its examination, or audit, of tax returns. If your return is selected for audit, the IRS letter to you will list the areas of your tax return which are being questioned (also known as issues) and will indicate the types of records, receipts, or other information required to enable you to answer the auditor's questions.

The IRS also will give you enough time to gather the needed information, or grant you additional time to collect less accessible information, if necessary. Consequently, whether your audit is being handled by correspondence or face-to-face with an examiner in an IRS office, if you have all supporting documentation, you should have no problem answering the IRS questions.

If yours is a correspondence audit, you merely send the IRS the information requested in the letter. Shortly after an IRS employee has reviewed this material, you will receive notice of any change the IRS proposes in our tax and an explanation of the IRS position. You also will be reminded of your right to appeal any finding with which you disagree, although your appeal rights were outlined in the letter which first informed you of the audit.

When you appear for an office audit, the first person you'll officially meet is a receptionist, who will ask for your name and other information that will tell her whom you are to meet.

Once you're seated with the auditor, the questions will come naturally. The auditor will try to be as pleasant and brief as possible, concentrating on the issues listed in the letter sent to you.

He or she will review the records, receipts and other materials you brought to substantiate items on your return. Sometimes, however, questions arise that can be answered only by material not previously requested. If additional information is required, you'll be told exactly what is needed and, generally, if the examinaiton can be completed by correspondence, it will be handled in that manner. Otherwise, you will be asked to return for another interview with the documents.

At the same time, if you have questions about recordkeeping or other matters relating to your taxpaying responsibilities, the auditor will be glad to answer them. The auditor's answers at the interview may help you with a future audit.

Depending on the circumstances, at the close of the interview the auditor usually will tell you of proposed changes, if any, to your tax. Not all audits result in your owing the government money. In some cases, the return is accepted as filed and in others, the government may end up owing you a refund.

The examiner will also review your appeal rights if you disagree with his or her recommendations. However, because audits frequently involve more detailed analysis of substantiating documents than there is time to perform during an interview, the examiner may ask you to leave the papers you brought with you. He or she will promise to return the documents once the audit has been completed.

Luncheon To Say Thank You To Sierra Madreans

A "Thank You Luncheon" for Sierra Madre volunteers who worked in the 1976 American Cancer Society Residential Crusade in our city will be held at the Sierra Madre Women's Club at noon on Thursday, May 20.

Mrs. Blaine (Sharon) Lefler, who served as this year's chairman for the drive, said that the program will feature a demonstration and actual lesson in belly-dancing by Cherry Yocom of the Recreation Department.

Neighborhood chairmen who provided leadership for this year's Crusade in Sierra Madre included:

Mrs. Robert (Diane) Brown; Mrs. Bruce (Joan) Crow; Mrs. Gerry (Nan) Carlton; Mrs. Barry (Louisa) McKinley; Mrs. John (Sue) Chandler; Mrs. Don (Joan) McQuarie; Mrs. Jerry (Marion) Adkins; and Mr. Michael Allen.

S. S. I.

Mrs. Marilyn Telles is now the S.S.I representative in the Pasadena - Altadena area. SSI is the Supplemental Security Income program for people in need, 65 or over, blind or disabled, sponsored by the Social Security Administration. Her office hours at the Jackie Robinson Center in Pasadena are from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. daily.

Spencer Edwards, Sr. Laid To Rest

Services were held on Tuesday at the hour of 3 p.m. May 17 in the Episcopal Church of the Ascension for Spencer Penrose Edwards, Sr., age 82, who passed away at the Park Marino Convalescent Center. He lived at 576 Elm Avenue in our city, and was an executive of the Crane Company, having come to California some 54 years ago from Colorado Springs, Colorado and to Sierra Madre some 30 years ago.

In parting this life he leaves his wife Edna H. of the home address and one son, Rev. Spencer P. Edwards, Jr., of Sierra Madre. Also six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

In parting this life he leaves his wife Edna H. of the home address and one son, Rev. Spencer P. Edwards, Jr., of Sierra Madre. Also six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Services were performed by Rev. Spencer P. Edwards, Jr., Rev. Ronald I. Erlandson, and Rev. C. Boone Sadler with interment in the Sierra Madre Cemetery.

Spencer was a Lay Reader in the Episcopal Church for over 50 years. Memorials may be made to the Music Education Fund, Goodin School, 192 N. Baldwin Ave. Ripple Mortuary made all of the arrangements.

Bertha MacDonnel Given Last Rites

Graveside services were held at Forest Lawn Covina Hills for Bertha Lynch MacDonnel, age 85 who passed away Saturday, May 15 at the Monrovia Convalescent Hospital after a lengthy illness. She was the widow of the late James A. MacDonnell who served under President Herbert Hoover and later with the War Production Board in Washington, D.C.

Bertha, lived at 1416 Orlando Drive in Arcadia, coming to California some 30 years ago from the State of New York and to Sierra Madre some 31 years ago. She had been employed with the Richfield Oil Company of Los Angeles. She leaves to mourn her loss a daughter, Ruth Mary Eilken of Arcadia and a grandson Peter Eilken also of Arcadia.

Rev. Patrick Gorman officiated with interment in Forest Lawn Covina Hills. Ripple Mortuary make all of the arrangements.

Robt. M. Hylton With Fighter Squad, Germany

First Lieutenant Robert M. Hyton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hyton, Jr., of 451 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. is a member of U.S. Air Forces in Europe's (USAFE) top fighter squadron.

Lieutenant Hylton is a fighter pilot at Hahn AB, Germany, with the 10th Tactical Fighter Squadron which received USAFE's Commander-in-Chief Award for oustanding mission accomplishment.

The squadron's personnel were cited for their support of the command's commitment to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization while maintaining an accident-free flying record.

Lieutenant Hylton, a 1969 graduate of Pasadena High School, received his B.S. degree from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and was commissioned there in 1973 through the Reserve Officers Training Corps program. His wife, Constance, is the daughter of retired U.S. Navy Captains and Mrs. F. E. Malone of 10 Oxford St., Glenridge, N.J. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha.

The hearings are expected to continue through May 20.

Coyotes

Many citizens blame the dogs for turning over garbage cans at the curb, when actually many times the intruders are coyotes which have been observed by residents in the act.

Few records are evident that the coyote will attack human beings, but they are tempted and will carry off small dogs and cats if they can catch them to whet their ever hungry appetities. Placing of food for the coyotes is but an invitation for them to return the next day in search of more. Citizens are advised to accompany their smaller pets while they are outside, that is unless they wish for them to be carried away and devoured.

Out of the Cobwebs of Our Files

Thirty Years Ago:
May 23, 1946

A small building, used largely for storage, at the rear of the property owned by Mrs. Madge Hare, 279 W. Highland, was discovered on fire Friday evening by Miss Martha Sharp, a resident of the same address. The fire department responded to the call and the fire was extinguised before spreading to other buildings, but had such a start that the contents were almost a total loss.

The H. M. Whites of 68 W. Krand View spent a few days last week in Palm Springs.

The home of Mrs. Elizabeth S. Dietz, S. Baldwin, was the scene of a happy family reunion Sunday. Her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwood Irving Kromer, arrived from Philadelphia to make their future home with Mrs. Dietz.

The following Sierra Madreans were entertained at a luncheon given last Tuesday by Mrs. G. H. Galbraith of Long Beach; Mmes. W. L. Porterfield, A. R. Porterfield, E. D. Burbank, W. S. Hull, William Smythe and Ralph Jones.

Police Blotter — A "check-passer" operating in town a few days ago. He may come back. Know your endorsers . . . Mrs. Floyd, of 430 N. Mountain Trail, is sick and tired of cleaning up after someone leaving rubbish in front of her garage . . . A house fight resulted in the arrest of the husband . . . . Another of the same on the same day, except this husband was not arrested, nor was the other half. Neither would file against the other. . . . Ranger McLeod at the Santa Anita Ranger Station, reported a Sierra Madre boy there with a head wound from a fall over the mountain side . . . An unexpected arrival of a son from an out-of-town school found the house locked and the folks away. In an attempt to enter through a window, he was caught in the act by police. Explanations made, everything O.K. . . . . Family squabbles must be in the air. Here is another. Woman claims her husband beat her . . . Holding a metal pipe an elderly man threatened one of his apartment neighbors. Found that such tactics do not go over with the law . . . Jim Heasley refused to name a prominent woman of our town who ridiculed the way the traffic laws are enforced. She claimed the method as very humorous, and then added, "Perhaps I shouldn't say anything or else you'll get me the next time I do something wrong." Jim said this is just about typical of many Americans, "Get the other fellow, but don't bother ME!"

Ten Years Ago:
May 19, 1966

The Sierra Madre Police Department solicits the community in cooperation of the motoring public in attempting to reduce the accident rate in Sierra Madre. Of the many causes which contribute to the accident rate, exeessive speed ranks number one.

It was at a Civic Club meeting that Jean Holcomb was pleasantly surprised to learn that fellow member Ann Tyler and her husband will be flying Pan Am with them on the same tour; both couples will spend all of the first week at Waikiki; the second week the Holcombs will go on to one-day stops at various outer islands, taking in special tours, while the Tylers will spend this time visiting friends at Kouna.

Three Sierra Madre girls are among those honored by being chosen as Girl Scout Counselor-in-Training selectees for the summer at Singing Pines Camp. They are: Besty Harris, 645 N. Auburn; Colleen Simpson, 446 Theresa Lane, and Paulette Yeats, 1925 Liliano Drive, all in CIT II.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shimizu of 219 N. Grove St., are so very proud of their son Clifford Shiroku who was delivered at Sierra Madre Community Hospital Thursday, May 8. His weight was recorded at 7 pounds 15½ ounces. Clifford's sisters are Margaret Hisako and Kathleen Mituse.

Mrs. Robert Hopkins, of 390 E. Grand View, is taking a pleasant vacation at Palm Springs, will be visiting her friend Mrs. Herrie Holmes. Mr. Hopkins gets the pleasure of driving her down but will be sticking to the grindstone otherwise.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fergin, 136 W. Montecito, are glad to know that after six months of illness, Mr. Fergin has improved to the point where, as he says, he can now talk back.

was all that they could do to contain themselves in waiting for that time to pass . . . . It seemed to them it would never pass, so I suggested that they go to the bank and borrow three thousand dollars with the payment and interest due in three months . . . You had better believe it, time will fly by in no time, just try it sometime if you want to hurry up time.

Here's an old trick that sometimes help you to collect outstanding accounts . . . . Seems this old Chinese businessman in Hong Kong sighed "Lackaday," to a friend of his and said, "I have lent a tricky competition a thousand gold dollars and he has not given me a receipt. What can I do?"

— CT —

"Write sternly," suggested his friend, "and demand payment of the two thousand gold pieces." "Most careless listener," reproved the businessman. "I told you it was only one thousand gold dollars." . . . "I know," nodded the friend, "and your competitor will indignantly write and tell you so, then you will have your receipt."

So we will close up the column for this week and tell you the most unpopular insurance salesman who ever lively was the killjoy agent who tried to sell a full coverage policy to Lady Godiva. I hope, I hope, I hope.

DOES YOUR FICTITIOUS NAME STATEMENT EXPIRE THIS YEAR?

A New Law

All Fictitious Business Name Statements filed or refiled during the year 1971 will expire on December 31, 1976. If you filed your statement during 1971, California law requires you to prepare a new statement and file it with the County Clerk before December 31, 1976. If the information in your new statement is different from the information which was in your 1971 statement, the law also requires that the new statement be published in a legally qualified newspaper. The law provides that "the newspaper selectd for the publication of the statement should be one that circulates in the area where the business is to be conducted." (Sec. 17917 — Business and Professions Code)

Free Help From Your Newspaper

As a service to local businesses, this newspaper will make avaiable at no charge all necessary forms for refiling and we will refile your 1976 statement with the County Clerk, also at no charge. Bring a copy of your 1971 Fictitious Business Name Statement to our office. Our public notice department will assist you in completing the new form and will forward it to the County Clerk via our representative in the Los Angeles Civic Center. If you have misplaced your 1971 statement, we will arrange for a search of the County Clerk's file to extract information which must be transferred to the 1976 form and to determine whether republication will be necessary.

The Cost

The County Clerk's statutory refiling fee is $10.00. If publication is necessary, our advertising charge is $25.00. If there is no publication, your cost is only $10.00. If you want us to handle filing for you, please bring us your $10.00 check made payable to "Los Angeles County Clerk." Our forms and filing services are free, as explained above.

Out of the Cobwebs of Our Files

Fifty-five Years Ago:
May 20, 1921

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hartman arrived at Camp Curry Sunday evening. Mr. Hartman wired to his father F. H. that they were well and expected to spend a happy week.

Two persons were fined in police court recently for fading corners, one for speeding and one for having permitted his auto to be driven without a license.

W. H. Fraser, rustic designer and builder of Los Angeles has located at the foot of Sturtevant Trail just off of Sycamore Place. he is an ex-newspaper man from Illinois and comes to Sierra Madre to do short story writing.

The family of Charles Johnson have arrived and they are comfortably domiciled at 317 North Lima. Mr. Johnson recently accepted a position at the Langley Barber Shop and expects to locate permanently in Sierra Madre.

W. E. Farman and others have sold their interests in the Sierra Madre Telephone and Telegraph Company to O. E. Emley, Walter Dunn and J. M. Baldwin of Monrovia. Mr. Emley will be the manager and has moxed into the property at 24 East Highland recently vacated by G. I. Farman.

Sixteen friends of Thomas Henderson and their wives gathered at the Henderson home, 629 East Grand View Avenue Monday night and enjoyed an evening brim full of pleasure. The occasion was Mr. Henderson's birthday anniversary and he has the best wishes of his friends that he will see 36 more such anniversaries.

P. B. Stanley of Lodi, Calif., is visiting his parents of Mira Monte.

A beautiful tree, known as the Erythrian, Crista-Galli, common coral tree or Mexican tree of fire, is in full bloom on the Dr. Barlow place, west Highland Avenue.

Forty Years Ago:
May 22, 1936

When a man bites a dog — that's news. When a jaywalker thanks an officer for a ticket — that's an event. Two Sierra Madreans, arrested for jaywalking, were so grateful for the courtesy shown them that they wrote in to the chief of police of Pasadena. Mrs. Stella E. Clark and Miss Charlotte L. Clark were arrested for jaywalking, in itself an action that usually brings out the loudest of all protests, but in this case, the letter states, the officer (Roy Ewing) explained that the anti-jaywalking law was designed solely to protect pedestrians. They appreciated the explanation and were grateful to an officer who was courteous enough to explain it to them.

Coasting down Hermosa Avenue on a bicycle, Bert Embree 439 Mariposa Avenue, and Bryan Burke, 373 Sierra Madre Avenue, Monday afternoon collided with the rear fender of a car driven by Carl Johnson, 397 North Baldwin Avenue. Both boys were taken to the office of Dr. M. H. Peterson for treatment of superficial cuts and bruises.

Postmaster R. O. Caukin had a birthday party last Sunday — a smartly appointed dinner party at 4:30 p.m. which was highlighted by all the birthday trimmings and what-not.

Glowing honors were bestowed upon Miss Cynthia Hull of 540 West Montecito Avenue recently at Woodbury College when Miss Alma B. Cloud, director of public relations of Woodbury College, and twenty other charming pledgees took their final vows at their formal initiation into Alpha Iota Sorority during an impressive candlelight service.

A large group of friends of Judge and Mrs. E. W. Camp is happy to learn that the Judge and his gracious wife have returned to Sierra Madre, and are domiciled at Bella Vista Terrace, Judge Camp, a noted lawyer, was a former member of the City Council and is now highly regarded here and elsewhere where he is recognized.

Editorially Speaking

The People Must Know

By Howard Jarvis
Chairman, United Organizations of Taxpayers

An open letter to the Honorable Peter Schabarum, Board of Supervisors, County of Los Angeles, California. Dear Mr. Schabarum:

In reference to our telephone conversation of April 28, 1976 in which we discussed the coming fiscal budget, I again suggested the Board of Supervisors make a flat ten per cent cut in the budget. I suggested this because as in the past ten years, this year's budget is so voluminous and complicated, an item by item examination and reduction, would be a massive job the Board of Supervisors could not possibly accomplish.

Since 1965 the number of County employees have increased from 46,000 to over 80,000, while the County population has increased but two per cent. Salaries of county employees have gone up much faster and higher than private employees in the same categories of work.

The increases in private employment in the County since 1965 has been less than 25 per cent, much fewer than the increases in County employment.

The rapid proliferation of public employees and public employees' salaries, fringe benefits and pensions, compared to the income of private employee earnings and benefits, is a serious menace to the financial stability of the county, and unless this condition is corrected, will lead to hardships beyond the ability of the taxpayers to survive.

You stated to me that an across the board ten per cent cut was a "meat axe" approach to the budget problem and you could not approve of this kind of a solution. I have respect for your views and consider you to be one of the better public officials, however, as the projected budget will require a substantial property tax raise, I respectfully suggest to you that the coming county propety tax raise for next year is a king sized "meat axe" attack on every taxpayer in the county, and a body blow to county fiscal sanity.

The most dangerous "meat axe" approach is one in which government takes its citizens into insolvency. I would think Los Angeles County could reduce its number of employees ten per cent without impairing any essential service at all.

Talking about "meat axes," Assessor Philip Watson, recently said over KABC radio that property taxes will double in the next three or four years. If that happens, the axe may remain but there will be very little meat left to cut.

I have a hard time concluding that reducing the number of county employees from 80,000 to 70,000 would cause a catastrophe in any essential public service, private companies are forced to do this from time to time to avoid bankruptcy.

New Cities?

Two innovative, ecological cities of the future are being planned and built by their future residents from their homes in Los Angeles and other West Coast cities. At 2p.m. this Sunday, May 16, at Lincoln Park in Santa Monica (corner Wilshire and Lincoln Blvds.), members of the non-profit community groups will show slides and answer questions about:

Experimental City — a planned community/university of 50,000 people committed to testing theories of a more human social and physicial environment on a 50,000-acre site in Southern California.

Cerro Gordo — 100 families who have already started building a new town for 2500 people on 1200 acres near Eugene, Oregon. Automobiles will be replaced by trolley and bicycle . . . wastes will be recycled and power provided by sun, wind, water and biofuels . . . a variety of businesses will provide jobs . . . a child-centered school is operating now . . . a new way of life integrating village, forest and farm is evolving.

Everyone is invited to the meeting, admission is free.

Spending Control Urged

The National Taxpayers Conference, meeting in Washington, D.C., April 5 through the 7, urged greater discipline by Congress to bring federal spending and debt growth under control.

While lamenting the decline in faith in governmental institutions, the official policy statement adopted by the delegates to the Conference urged full implementation of the new congressional budget process under which federal revenue, spending and deficit totals will be set by Congress with accompanying accountability.

The resolution also called for enactment of the proposed Government Economy and Spending Reform Act of 1976 to require periodic "zero base" review by the president and Congress of all federal spending programs with curtailment and elimination of ineffective or duplicative programs.

These steps should provide greater spending restraint.

The group also urged submission to the states of a Constitutional Amendment to require federal outlays and revenues be matched except during periods of economic or national security emergency.

The resolution stated: "The primary objective of fiscal policy should be the achievement of sound and substainable economic growth, without ruinous inflation. Control of federal spending is essential to that objective."

$1025 Million In Bonds At Election

If high taxes have you down, it might be well to consider the $1025-Million in Bond issues on the June 8 ballot for rejection or approval.

No. 1. $200 million School Lease Purchase Bonds for remodeling and replacing 30-year old buildings.

No. 2. A new $500 million in Veterans bonds to finance purchases by veterans of farms and homes.

No. 3. $175 million in bonds for construction and improvement in domestic water systems.

No. 4. $150 million in bonds for adding to $65 million voted in 1968 and $160 million in 1972 to provide state assistance for community college district to buy equipment, acquire school sites and construct buildings.

Five minutes later, the waiter who had spilled the soup poked the guest indignantly on the shoulder, and demanded: "Don't you know you're not allowed in this dining room unless you're wearing a jacket?" . . . Right there I think I would have gotten mad.

— CT —

A certain Sierra Madre citizens was on his way home through a dark alley when three thugs attacked him. This Sierra Madrean fought like a wildcat, but finally was overcome and robbed of all the change in his pocket . . . Thirty cents to be exact.

— CT —

"You're a fighting feller," grunted one of the thugs with something like admiration in his voice, "but why would you be wanting to put up such a battle for a measly thirty cents?"

— CT —

"To be sure," confided the Sierra Madean, "I thought yez wanted the twenty dollars I've got hidden in my shoe!" . . . I thought I was the only one that hid money in that spot!

— CT —

Back again to politics and politicians, here is a story that I remember back in 1936 at the time that Wendell Willkie, then President of the Commonwealth and Southern Corporation, and who had aspirations of becoming President of the United States. At this point in life he was attending a convention in Atlanta Georgia and had the following conversation with one of the delegates:

— CT —

"Remember meeting my wife the last time you were here? Well, she's written a novel, and a publisher has accepted it. If it sees enough to earn five thousand dollars, we are going to buy a new house." "Good for her," enthused Mr. Willkie. "Although I've never done anything like this before, I'm going to write a letter over my signature to every stockholders urging him to buy a copy of your wife's book.

— CT —

Wendell Willkie was true to his word, and for years thereafter laughingly demanded some credit for getting the book off to a rousing start . . . The name of the book was "Gone With the Wind" . . . So help me, this is a true story.

— CT —

I was looking over some of the "Used Car" advertisements in a local newspaper the other day, and was quite surprised to note that some of them offered untimely credit on the purchase of these vehicles, and the interest rate was listed at only 21.87 per cent. My attention was darwn to a 1968 VW Bug you could buy for $725 if you had $100 down and could make the payments of $88.53 a month for 24 months, and of course, this is on approved credit, which does remind me of another story.

— CT —

Sems this venerable gray bearded gentleman hobbled into a credit manager's office to announce, "I'm here to pay the final installment on a baby carriage." . . . "Thank you," said the credit manager, "and how's the baby today?" "Oh, I'm doing as well as could be expected',, answered the greybeard . . . and sometimes it does seem to take that long.

— CT —

Speaking about payments and the passing of time, brings me to a story of the young girl and boy that were expecting to get married in three months, and it

Don't let anybody hand you a bunch of baloney.

If somebody tells you drug laws overseas are relaxed, that somebody is talking through his hat.

If somebody tells you the system of justice gives you all the rights of a United States citizen in the United States, that's a bunch of baloney.

You should get the facts straight. The truth is their drug laws are tough. And they enforce them to the letter.

There's a girl from the United States sitting in a Rome jail right now. She'll be there for six to ten months awaiting trial. With no bail. Not even a chance for it. If she's convicted, it's a minimum of three years. Carrying stuff across a border, from one country to another, is asking for trouble. And you'll get it.

That's their law. And there's no way around it.

Over 900 United States citizens are doing time on drug charges in foreign jails right now. And nobody can get them out. Not family. Or friends. Or the smartest lawyer in town. Not the United States government.

If you're planning a visit to Europe, the Middle East or south of our own border, check out the countries. Get the facts. And get them straight before you leave.

One fact will come through. Loud and clear.

When you're busted for drugs over there, you're in for the hassle of your life.

Childbirth Film Arcadia May 13

The American Academy of Husband-Coached Childbirth is sponsoring a free public film showing on natural childbirth at Hinshaw's Department Store Auditorium, 1201 S. Baldwin Ave., in Arcadia, Friday at 7:30 p.m. on May 21.

The film is called "Childbirth For the Joy Of It" and shows five different unmedicated births, in hospitals, with the husbands present. The film is from the parents' point of view, capturing the emotions of husband - coached natural childbirth, and has been approved for use in the L.A. City School. It is acceptable for family viewing.

A short lecture and a question - and - answer period will follow the film.

INVESTMENTS IN GROWTH STOCKS

by Thomas O'Hara

Q. — I have a son eight years old and I have been buying him some stocks to provide for his college education. I have bought T. Rowe Price Growth Fund and a few shares in Royal Dutch Oil, Shell Oil, Mobil Oil and Atlantic Richfield. I plan on buying a few more shares of one or the other each month. Do you think I have a good program?

A. — You certainly are a man who knows quality. Each of the securities you are buying is of excellent quality and should continue to gain value at a moderate rate. Since your son is young and will not be needing the money for nine or ten years, I would be inclined to put a little more emphasis on growth. You could do this by putting more of your money, I'd go as high as 60 per cent, in the T. Rowe Price Growth Fund. You are heavy in oils, but I would think these would do well for you over the years.

Q. — We have $40,000, the bulk of our life savings, in corporate bonds. Most are rated A— or better. I would like to buy $10,000 of a bond that pays 10.062 per cent rated A— and $10,000 of another that pays 10 per cent and is rated A—. My wife is opposed to this change and I'd like to have your opinion.

A. — You don't say so, but I suspect your wife's objection is due to the fact you are trying to get a higher income by lowering the rating of the bonds you hold. I am with your wife on keeping the quality high, but would go with you to the extent of putting $5,000 into each of our choices and staying with your present holdings for the balance.

Q. — Quite a few years ago when the big hassle about the possible dangers of cigarette smoking first came up, I got scared and sold my stock in the company which made Lucky Strikes. Now it looks like I Made a mistake. The company seems to be doing well and is paying a bigger dividend than it did when I sold it.

A. — When scare stories come out about companies or industries, some people have a tendency to act quickly and sell their stock. Sometimes that turns out to be a good idea, but more often it pays to make sure you really understand the companies long - term position and prospects as well as problems before you take action. The company you owned, American Brands as it is now called, has done very well. While it has lost some of the share of the cigarette market that it held, it still has a sizable share and has acquired a number of other companies in the food, distilling, and a miscellaneous group of industries. Its sales have increased in the last ten years from $1½ billion to over $4 billion. Its earnings per share have grown from $3 to $5. Management has worked hard at diversification and seems to have been successful. As you noted, the $2.80 annualized dividend gives a yield of 6.7 per cent.

When a company has good management and problems arise, as they always do, management goes to work and solves those problems. Sometimes management is not successful, but the better record it has had in the past the more likely it is to continue doing a good job for shareholders.

The energy crisis that need not happen

Gas Cutoff Predicted By PUC

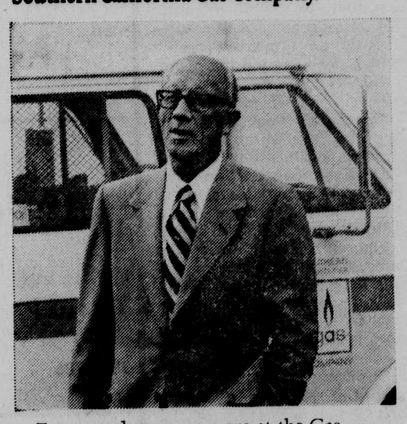
The California Public Utilities Commission predicts a curtailment of residential and commercial natural gas service in the Southland unless gas is obtained from other supply projects.

The projections were made in PUC's 10-year forecast of gas utilities' requirements and supply covering the period 1976-1985.

PUC said that despite higher levels of natural-gas supplies and reduced levels of demand, the curtailment of service was forecast by 1980-81 unless additional gas supplies were obtained from other s...

is getting closer.

One of a series of reports by Harvey A. Proctor, Chairman, Southern California Gas Company.



For several years now, we at the Gas Company have been warning about a serious natural gas shortage in the near future if something isn't done right away. The clipping reproduced above shows that the staff of the Public Utilities Commission recognizes it. This is important. Solving the energy problem demands awareness and cooperation between governmental agencies, labor and industry, and the public.

The situation.

In-state supplies of natural gas for southern California have just about dried up, and our suppliers, who get their gas from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma, are cutting back deliveries to us. This has forced us to stop supplying some industrial customers who are able to use other fuels—fuels which are more expensive than gas. If we're not permitted to go ahead rapidly with projects that will bring more natural gas to southern California, we face the dilemma of having to limit our deliveries to small businesses which cannot burn alternate fuels.

The projects.

- We have plans to construct a plant in the Cook Inlet area of south Alaska to prepare natural gas for shipment here. Special ships to bring the gas here have been ordered.
- We have plans to participate in a proposed pipeline that would bring natural gas here from Prudhoe Bay in north Alaska.
- We have plans to build a plant in New Mexico that will make gas from coal.
- We have signed contracts with Pertamina, the Indonesian oil and gas company, to buy its natural gas and import it in liquid form.

The problem.

Delays. Delays on decisions from local, state and federal agencies that affect all of our new supply projects. And every delay adds to the cost of each project and the danger of a future severe shortage of natural gas. A shortage that could mean closed businesses, many hundreds of thousands of lost jobs, and even cold homes, according to the best studies we have.

The solution.

Faster decisions. Of course, government agencies must perform their duties, but the faster the regulatory agencies act, the faster we can get new supplies of natural gas. We know how to prevent a natural gas shortage. We're ready to do so. But after years of hard effort, not one of our new supply projects has received final approval, and our hands are tied without governmental approval.

We need your help.

As a citizen and as an energy user you have the right to be fully informed. We have prepared a brochure to give you more information. You can obtain a copy by writing to: Southern California Gas Company, Box 54093, Los Angeles, CA 90054.

THIS SUMMER SPEND YOUR VACATION WHERE YOU'LL GET SOMETHING MORE THAN JUST SCENERY.

Ever go on a vacation and then come home and wish you were still there?

It happens all the time.

It's nice to take it easy and relax, just sit around the pool all day and worry about nothing.

Problem is we always have to come home.

That's why California Pools feels that you should get something more out of your vacation than just scenery. We know. We've been giving people (hundreds of them) something more than just scenery for over two decades. We've been turning their backyards into vacation paradises. Look at it this way.

If you were to take that same money that you're now spending on a vacation and invest it in a swimming pool for your family, you would be well on your way to owning your own pool. Your property would increase in value at the same time.

So call us soon, you'll be able to take advantage of our winter prices.

Just think, your vacation would never have to end.
